The School for Autistically Impaired Learners, SAIL, is a researched-based program serving families with toddlers, preschool, early elementary school age children, and youth through high school medically diagnosed with autistic spectrum disorders (ASD). SAIL offers embedded related services: Occupational Therapy, Sensory Integration Therapy, Speech-Language Therapy, and Music and Art Therapy.

The utmost mission of SAIL is inclusion with typical peers with one-one support. Until total independence is achieved, SAIL provides year-round individualized, one to one, developmental instruction. SAIL enhances maximum growth in cognitive, sensory, social, emotional, physical, functional language-communication, and aesthetic domains. SAIL adheres to the published academic standards of the Ohio Department of Education ~ Kindergarten through 12th grades.

Regards,
